

REFERENCE WORK FOR EVERYBODY

It Consists of a Complete Set of Books

FOR LESS THAN PRICE OF ONE

The Work Is Profuse With Magnificent Illustrations in Colors and Is Revised Up to the Date of Its Publication.

For many years there has been an urgent need for a convenient work of reference. Every publisher who has issued an encyclopedia has seemed to have a desire to make it as large as possible without regard to convenience, and what is more regrettable, the object seems to have been to incorporate as many words as possible in order to fill space and thus increase the size of the volume. So while there are many books of this nature on the market, they do not meet the requirements of the general public for the reason that they are all too large and unwieldy.

Taking all of this into consideration, the publishers of Everybody's Encyclopedia have just issued this complete work in one set of five volumes, not only of convenient and usable size in dimensions, but without the usual verbose descriptions—in fact, with the sole idea of giving the reader just the information wanted in every subject in a simple, straightforward manner that is easily and quickly comprehended.

The Times has been chosen as the one paper in this section to present this set of books to its readers on the popular coupon plan explained elsewhere in this issue, before the publishers start a house-to-house canvass at the first price.
This is called the "featherweight" edition, as it was necessary to use a special grade of lightweight paper in order to maintain the convenient size of the volume. It comprises 35,000 subjects in all departments of knowledge, including biographical sketches, chronological history and educational data from all sources, through the entire world. Its five volumes are filled with interesting information for all classes, and as its name implies, Everybody's Encyclopedia represents the equivalent of a valuable library of modern reference works and text-books for everybody.

Accurately compiled from the latest and best recognized sources of authority, Everybody's Encyclopedia, while dealing with every branch of existing knowledge, introduces hundreds of new subjects, covering all recent advances in the progress of the world, right up to the date of publication.

This "new knowledge," a special feature of Everybody's Encyclopedia, not to be found in the old encyclopedia works of reference, has been made possible by remodeling the work on the novel and expensive principle of the card-index, and by adopting modern methods of organization, preparation and production, the reverse of the laborious old-time principles, which made all previous encyclopedias antiquated before they were completed.

As the various sections are conveniently arranged for quick reference under one alphabetical order, page numbers are not needed for purposes of reference.
This allows the alteration or revision of any page, and the addition of a fresh page or more at any point, as one inserts a new title in a card catalogue or index without interfering with what precedes or follows. During the long and expensive period of careful compilation and editing, the continual addition of "new knowledge" in this way has kept the work abreast of the times and this plan, of superlative advantage to editors, students and readers, renders Everybody's Encyclopedia unique among reference works, as containing the latest knowledge, the facts of recent days, of the world's progress during the year just passing, which workers and students frequently have greater need to refer to than the knowledge of all previous days.
As previously mentioned, advance complimentary sets are offered by The Times on the popular coupon plan. Read the offer on another page of this issue and clip the coupon without further delay.

What Makes a Woman?

One hundred and twenty pounds, more or less, of bone and muscle don't make a woman. It's a good foundation. Put into it health and strength, and she may rule a kingdom. But that's just what Electric Bitters give her. Thousands bless them for overcoming fainting and dizzy spells and for dispelling weakness, nervousness, headache and tired, listless, worn-out feeling. "Electric Bitters have done me a world of good," writes Eliza Pool, Depew, Okla., "and I thank you, with all my heart, for making such a good medicine." Only 50c. Guaranteed by the Red Cross Pharmacy.

A PLEASED SAVINGS BANK DEPOSITOR.

There is no county in Vermont, indeed hardly a town in the state, or a state in the union, that does not make deposits in the Hyde Park Savings Bank.
The unprecedented growth of that institution is the result of two things: First, confidence; second, satisfaction with its management.

Everybody is well treated at that bank and everybody is satisfied.
Ask your neighbor who deposits there and see if he does not vouch for the truthfulness of this statement.

H. L. Hatch went to Bradford Saturday to join Mr. Corwin of Chelsea, Mr.
Howe of Bennington and Mr. Eaton of necticut lakes, a trip they took last year. The gentlemen were all acquaintances at Montpelier at the last session of the legislature.

MONTPELIER

Death of Michael W. McGill, III Several Months.

Michael W. McGill died Saturday, after a long illness. He was the son of John and Mary Ann McGill and was born in Underhill 54 years ago. Montpelier has been his home for many years. He is survived by his wife and two daughters, Elizabeth and Grace, and by four brothers and a sister. The funeral was held from St. Augustine's church this morning, with burial in the Catholic cemetery.

In an interesting game at Inter-city park Saturday, the Logan Squares won from the M. I. A. C. by the score of 3 to 1.

The funeral of Mrs. Sarah E. P. Heath, who died in Northfield, was held from the Church of the Messiah in this city Saturday afternoon. Rev. Dr. J. Edward Wright officiating. The bearers were A.
D. Farwell, John G. Farwell, George L.
Blanchard and Willis Blanchard.

fitters and metal workers enjoyed a pic-noon, about seventy-five being present.

Frank, the 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Prinoli, was considerably bruised Friday evening, when he was struck by a meat team owned by Aja brothers. The youngster was playing in the road and the driver of the team did not see him in time to turn out. No blame is attached to the driver.

What purported to be an attempt at suicide last evening proved to be something else, though just what happened, the police who were called to the Granite street bridge have not been able to find out. It was reported that a man, with his little daughter in his arms, had jumped into the river, and L. H.
Beard, who was passing the spot in his auto, hurried for a patrolman. An investigation revealed Joseph Bianchi in a nearby house, with his clothing soaked with water and mudstained, but his little girl was in another room of the house and had not been in the water at all, as her clothing was dry. Two small boys claimed to have seen Bianchi, with the child under his arm, leap from the bridge into the water, but it was evident no one could have taken the leap from so high a bridge into so shallow a stream and not be killed. No one about the scene could speak English and the police left without investigating further.
Neighbors say Bianchi has been acting queerly since his wife left him some time ago. His face showed signs of having been struck a blow by someone's fist.

C. D. CRANE TO BOOM WILSON

Chicago La Follette Supporter Announces He Is for Democratic Leader—Speaker at Sea Girl, N. J.

Sea Girl, July 15.—Speaker Champ Clark and Gov. Wilson talked for two hours Saturday on legislation pending before the House of Representatives.
The speaker arrived after the governor had been conversing for some time with two other guests, Charles R. Crane of Chicago and President Van Hise of Wisconsin university, both of whom have been prominent as La Follette supporters. Mr. Crane said he was going back to Chicago to work for Wilson and would be glad to contribute to the Democratic nominee's campaign fund.

Saturday night in talking with the newspaper men, Gov. Wilson said that the subject of contributions had not been touched upon in his conversation with Mr. Crane, and that there had been no pledge of support for the governor on his visitor's part.

Speaker Clark came up from Washington half an hour before he was expected. He was not met at the station, so he rode in a hack to the governor's home, and was almost on the porch before anyone thought he was within a dozen miles of Sea Girl. The governor shook hands with him warmly and excused him to the parlors.

"The speaker was very fine," Gov.
Wilson said Saturday night to the reporters. "His position was admirable and generous in every respect. I suppose he told you what we talked about, didn't he?"

"He said you would do that if you saw fit for us to know," the governor was told.

"What we discussed," he introduced the subject—was chiefly the business pending in the House and the probability of adjournment," Gov. Wilson said.

When Speaker Clark left the governor, he came out on the porch, sat in a rocking chair and told the reporters he was willing to talk on any one of eight subjects, including the Copernican theory of astronomy, art, music, the 9th congressional district of Missouri and books, but he would not talk on politics.

The newspaper men plied him with questions on many forbidden topics.

The speaker was asked what part he thought William J. Bryan would take in the campaign, and replied that Mr.
Bryan was another topic he would not discuss. When the question was repeated later in a different form, he replied:

"I don't know and I don't care. I'm not going to talk about it."

Gov. Wilson had a long conference with Robert S. Hudspeeth, who will convey his message to the national committee at Chicago, and other leaders during the forenoon, but declined to indicate his choice for national chairman or any of the topics with which his message will deal.

Resolutions.

Whereas, The sudden and untimely departure of our worthy Henry S. Baker from this world to the undiscovered country "from whose bourne no traveler returns" and while bowing with submission to the inevitable, we deeply deplore the severance of another link from our fraternal chain.

Resolved, The members of Summit Lodge, No. 104, F. and A. M., have prized the associations and fellowship of our departed brother, whose counsel was ever timely and good and will ever hold his memory sacred within us, and with sorrow will our minutes report his past temporal sufferings, therefore be it Resolved, That we extend to the believed family our sincere sympathy and that as a tribute of our respect and

Children Cry For

Fletcher's

CASTORIA

Letters from Prominent Druggists addressed to Chas. H. Fletcher.

S. J. Briggs & Co., of Providence, R. I., say: "We have sold Fletcher's Castoria in our three stores for the past twenty years and consider it one of the best preparations on the market."

E. W. Stucky, of Indianapolis, Ind., says: "To say that we have recommended and sold your Castoria for years is the best endorsement we can possibly give any preparation. It is surely full of merit and worthy of recommendation."

Henry R. Gray, of Montreal, Que., says: "I would say that your Castoria for children is in large demand and that it gives general satisfaction.
Not being a secret nostrum many medical men order it when circumstances indicate the use of such a preparation."

W. G. Marshall, of Cleveland, Ohio, says: "We have found your Castoria to be not only one of the best sellers in the medicine market, but a preparation that gives almost universal satisfaction; in fact we cannot recall having had a single complaint from any of our customers who have used it."

Owens & Minor Drug Co., of Richmond, Va., says: "It is with pleasure that we lend our endorsement to Castoria, a preparation of proven merit. During our long experience in the drug business we have had abundant occasion to note the popularity of the genuine Fletcher's Castoria, which we unhesitatingly recommend."

Brannen & Anthony of Atlanta, Ga., say: "No doubt if we were called upon to state positively what medicine we had sold for the greatest length of time, the greatest number of bottles sold, and the most satisfactory preparation to us and also to the customer, we feel that we could safely and conscientiously say Fletcher's Castoria."
